AMERICAN TRADE.

No Matter What May Occur In the Far East It Will be Protected.

MISUNDERSTANDING CORRECTED.

No Political Intervention In Manchuria on the Part of the United States Government.

Russian Troops Are Now Being Concentrated at the Towns of Liao-Yang and Hai-Cheng and at Other Places.

Washington, Jan. 16.—What might have developed into an unfortunate misunderstanding between the governments of the United States and Russia regarding the interest of the United States in Manchuria was adjusted at a conference at the state department Friday between Mr. Hay, secretary of state, and Count Cassini, Russian ambassador. As a result the Russian government will be advised by the ambassador that he has the best assurances that the interest of the United States in Manchuria is absolutely and exclusively commercial and that the consuls sent to Mukden and Antung will confine their activities to the faithful care of American trade interests in that province.

Count Cassini called at the state department Friday to inquire into certain statements in which several European diplomats had brought to his attention and interpreted to indicate a change of policy on the part of the United States government in the direction of political intervention in Manchuria.

The conference between the secretary and the ambassador was characterized by frank cordiality on both sides. It is said that no matter what occurs in the far east the United States will be fully protected in commercial and treaty rights so far as Russia is able to act in the affair.

Peking, Jan. 16.—It is reported from consular sources at New-Chwang that Russian troops are concentrating at the towns of Liao-Yang and Hai-Cheng and other places, where they will be in a position to re-occupy the territory between the Liao river and the great wall and seize the New-Chwang-Shan-Hai-Kwan section of the Chinese railroads.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—The intimation that President Roosevelt is selecting consuls to represent the United States at Mukden and Antung, in Manchuria, the ports opened to commerce by the recently ratified treaty between the United States and China, was received in St. Petersburg merely as a matter of course.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES.

Manchuria Is Reported to Be Full of Them.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Commercial Agent Richard T. Greener, at Vladivostok, Siberia, has reported to the state department that Manchuria is full of Russian counterfeit notes, which come from Japan and Shanghai and are manufactured skillfully. Strict orders have been given to destroy such notes and to imprison persons who distribute them.

PLACED UNDER ARREST.

Cripple Creek, Col., Jan. 16.—John M. Glover, former congressman from Missouri, was again arrested by a military squad Friday and placed in the county jail. Mr. Glover, who fought the military three weeks ago and was shot in the arm, was arrested on an order from Commander Verdeckberg because of a threatening letter sent that officer.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Senate Passed a Uniform School Book Bill.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16.—Senate—Without waiting for democratic caucus action, the senate performed a coup by passing a uniform school book bill Friday, and, as it was not the bill desired by the friends of the administration, it looks as though it will result in an open breach between the senate and the governor. The bill passed provides a text book commission composed of the governor, the auditor of public accounts, state treasurer and the three members of the state board of education. The governor shall be chairman and the superintendent of public instruction shall be secretary and executive officer. The commissioners shall serve without compensation, taking an oath that they will receive no benefit from any contract. The commission shall receive sealed bids for books from publishers for five years stating prices at which books can be furnished the state or any county board of education. Senate adjourned until Monday.

House—The Spalding bill, appropriating $75,000 for a Kentucky exhibit at the World's fair, was amended by limiting amount paid to commissioners to $250 each for expenses, and making commissioners liable on their bonds for any exorbitant fees or salaries paid. The amendment to reduce the appropriation to $50,000 was lost by 51 to 33. The bill passed by 71 to 14. The house adjourned until Monday.

OUTSIDE INFANTS.

Those From Other States Can Not Be Adopted in Kentucky.

Cincinnati, Jan. 16.—Kentucky has raised a barrier against its citizens adopting children from other states. A copy of the law was received Friday by Superintendent Allison, of the house of refuge, from the secretary of state at Frankfort. The news was immediately imparted to the children's home, Cincinnati orphan asylum and other institutions that have been in the habit of placing children for adoption with Kentucky families.

The law is patterned after those in force in the states of Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois, and makes it punishable by a fine of $100 for any one to adopt a child from outside the state. The enactment of the law by the state of Kentucky causes general surprise, for the reason that the state is virtually without children's homes or orphanages.

It is claimed Ohio is now caring for hundreds of Kentucky children who without the hospice offered would be rendered homeless.

The three institutions named above are now harboring upward of a hundred children who have emigrated from Kentucky in the last five years. Some, it is claimed, have been sent here for the express purpose of finding homes in Cincinnati's charitable institutions.

KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY.

It Will Join the Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 16.—At a meeting of the athletic committee of the Kentucky university Friday night it was decided to go into the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic association at a meeting of the executive committee of that body Saturday morning. Other Kentucky colleges are in the Kentucky association. The state college and the Kentucky university are charged with playing "ringers" in the Thanksgiving day game, which has been the subject of adverse editorial comment in the eastern and sporting papers.

THE OHIO MINERS.

Their Convention Decided to Make Permanent the One Per Cent Assessments.

FOR A RELIEF OR DEFENSE FUND.

Initiation Fees For Inexperienced Men Was Raised With a View to Keep Out Foreigners.

As a Result of Overproduction the Ohio Coal Operators Have Reduced the Price of the Fuel at the Mines.

Columbus, O., Jan. 16.—The Ohio miners' convention Friday decided to make permanent the one per cent. assessments on earnings of miners for a relief or defense fund. Fifteen thousand dollars is to be kept available at all times for immediate needs.

The initiation fee for inexperienced men was raised to $20 with a view to the checking of the influx of foreigners to the mines of Ohio.

The convention refused to concur in a resolution presented by the Columbus Trades and Labor Assembly condemning the coal carrying and coal producing combinations of the state. President Haskins advised the miners to keep out of the controversy, as a fight for cheaper coal did not mean less profits for mining companies or railroads, but cheaper wages for miners.

Before adjourning Friday evening the convention adopted the report of the scale committee, but it will not be made public until presented to the national convention at Indianapolis. Action on the scale question was taken in secret session. It is understood the present prices for mining are reaffirmed and the delegates to the national convention instructed to oppose any reduction. The Ohio delegates leave Saturday for Indianapolis.

As a result of overproduction of Ohio coal, operators have reduced the price of coal at the mines from 10 to 25 cents per ton within the last week. The prevailing price for lump coal at the mines now is $1.50 per ton. Some of the large operators who have been selling only to the steam trade say they are now in a position to compete for domestic trade, but deny that any war in prices is being waged against the smaller operators.

EX-GOV. BUSHNELL.

The Funeral Will Probably Take Place Next Monday.

Springfield, O., Jan. 16.—The body of former Gov. Asa S. Bushnell arrived in Springfield from Columbus in a private car. The arrival of the train was announced by the tolling of bells and the firing of 17 guns. Several thousand citizens assembled at the station. Mitchell Post G. A. R. and two companies of the O. V. I. escorted the body to the Bushnell home in East High street. J. F. McGrew, a son-in-law of Gov. Bushnell, said that the funeral would probably be held Monday afternoon at Christ Episcopal church. The body will lie in state from 9 o'clock Monday to 1 o'clock. The masons and the national guard will be in charge at that time. Capt. Bushnell was a 33d degree mason.

A public meeting will be held to take action on Capt. Bushnell's death and the factories of Springfield will probably be closed for the funeral day.

THE FIRST SESSION.

The Constitutional Convention of Panama Meets.

Panama, Jan. 16.—Members of the junta and several consular representatives were present Friday at the first session of the constitutional convention, which was also attended by a great crowd of people.

Dr. Pablo Arosemena, temporary president of the convention, delivered the opening address, which was repeatedly interrupted by applause. Dr. Arosemena said:

"The republic will live less by its material power than by the virtues it will practice. Independence must be maintained and the republic must adopt without reserve that policy of probity which is born of justice and knowledge."

Representative Burges proposed that the convention should send a patriotic salute to the junta for its distinguished services to the country. This was unanimously approved, thus indicating the cordial relations which exist between the legislative and the executive powers.

The message from the junta to the convention begins by reviewing the history of the independence movement and its causes. The junta formally resigns legislative powers to the convention and lays before it an account of its acts, giving the reasons therefor. It says that the revenues of the republic are insufficient, because the commercial tax has been considerably diminished, owing to the anticipation of the changes which the ratification of the canal treaty would effect in the revenue system, and, also, owing to the inevitable increase in the army and the navy.

The junta formally informs the convention of the ratification of the canal treaty and says it has powerful reasons for such ratification. The message goes on to say that the benefits to be derived from this treaty are incalculable and that a seed has been sowed which will grow into a tree of greatest benefit to posterity and that this treaty will realize the noble and high aspirations of the people.

RAILROAD ROBBERIES.

One of the Most Daring and Extensive Unearthed in Ashland, Wis.

Ashland, Wis., Jan. 16.—The police here have unearthed one of the most daring and extensive railroad robberies ever committed in this city. During the past few years the Northwestern road has been robbed of thousands of dollars' worth of coal and merchandise by an organized band of their employees. Almost every car of coal that was received at the mines from here during late years was found to be several hundred pounds short in weight. While no arrests have yet been made sufficient evidence has been procured to apprehend all the guilty parties and the case has been turned over to the railroad's detectives.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

A Number of Bills on the Calendar Was Passed Friday.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Senate—Friday's session of the senate began with the passage of a number of bills on the calendar and closed in like manner. POSTAL SCANDAL.

Perry S. Heath Testified In the Machen, Groff, Lorenz Trial In Washington.

THE DEFENSE SCORED A POINT.

The Government Brought Forth No Documentary Evidence to Show the Existence of a Conspiracy.

Defenses' Counsel Called on Justice Pritchard to Reprimand Assistant Postmaster General Wynne For a Statement He Made.

Washington, Jan. 16.—In the trial Friday of August W. Machen, the Groff brothers and Dr. and Mrs. Lorenz, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government, the defense scored an important point with respect to the character of evidence to be introduced at this time by the government. The defense insisted that the government had not brought forth any documentary evidence showing the existence of a conspiracy to defraud the government and that which was being offered naturally should follow the evidence of conspiracy so as to specifically connect the defendants with the various transactions which had been referred to. The court sustained the point.

At one point in the trial Mr. Douglass, for the defense, called on Justice Pritchard to reprimand First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne for volunteering the statement that a former employee of the post office department recently had been sentenced in Baltimore to a term of two years in the penitentiary. The suggestion was not complied with, but the justice instructed the jury that their minds must not be prejudiced by the statement of Mr. Wynne.

Perry S. Heath, former assistant postmaster general, who was subpoenaed from his home in Salt Lake City, to state what he knew about the administration of his office, was on the stand during the day.

Former First Assistant Postmaster General Johnson also gave testimony as to the practice of his office in the handling of matter originating in the free delivery division.

DEMOCRATS in the House of Representatives have been trying to force the Republicans to an investigation of the post-office scandals, but they failed so far. The Republicans are not anxious to have the light turned on. They killed a resolution for the purpose of calling an investigation of the Bristow charges by referring it to a committee and there it will likely sleep in the desk of the Chairman.

A NET gain to the government of 2,000,000 hours of labor per year is figured to be one of the results of the order just issued which keeps the clerks in the various departments at work until 4:30 each afternoon instead of dismissing them at 4 o'clock, as has been the custom. These 2,000,000 hours mean approximately $7,000,000 of service annually. About 100,000 clerks are affected and the change is figured to be equivalent to the addition of 7,143 clerks. The constant requests from the heads of the departments for more clerical help led to the new order. They got the help but in a way they didn't expect.

The last Congress appropriated $500,000 to aid in the prosecution of trusts, and Attorney General Knox's report shows that he has used only 5 per cent. of it. The combines are in no danger as long as Knox is Attorney General. The fact that only 5 per cent. of the appropriation has been used furnishes convincing evidence of Mr. Knox's inactivity. He reports that a salt company out on the Pacific coast was fined $1,000 for monopolizing the salt trade of California, but the company evidently was not on to Knox and his associates, because it very foolishly pleaded guilty. If it had stood its ground and made a fight, the Attorney General would likely never have pushed the case. There are dozens of trusts operating all over the country, a fact the Attorney General well knows, but if he has taken any steps to protect the people from the greedy extortioners no one knows it. What is needed is an Attorney General who is not under the thumb of the combines.

MRS. FRANCES E. OWENS.

The Sad Fate of This Good Woman and Her Daughter Sincerely Mourned by Her Friends.

A well-known ex-Maysville lady, writing from Chicago, says: "All Woodlawn mourns Mrs. Frances E. Owens and Miss Amy. Not only our beautiful neighboring street, but the literati of Chicago all over the city grieve. Clubs and societies of which she was an honored member and officer have passed resolutions expressing their esteem of her and their sorrow at her sad fate. Editress and author, yet eminently practical, as those who are fortunate in possessing "Mrs. Owens Cook Book," and Maysville ladies who boarded with her during the World's Fair, can testify.

The cultivated daughter of a New York physician she met and married our townsman and old neighbor, so Maysville has always been proud of her. She and Miss Amy had, a few months ago, returned from a year's visit to her son, Guy, at Hawaii.

They were not burned, but were suffocated by the fumes of chemicals at the Iroquois Theater holocaust."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Cree have removed from Aubert avenue to 5,153 Kensington avenue, St. Louis.

PASTOR AN INVENTOR.

Indiana Methodist Circuit Rider Acquires Great Wealth from Patents He Has Designed.

From a poor Methodist circuit rider, preaching Sunday after Sunday to small country congregations in Pike and other southern Indiana counties, to a man whose wealth is roughly estimated at $500,000, with the prospect of quadrupling this sum within two years, is the record—Rev. James M. Stafford, of Petersburg, has made in two years through inventions he wrought out of a fertile brain while traveling.

Mr. Stafford is only 27 years of age, but he is the owner of seven labor-saving devices, six of which have been patented at Washington, and for each of which he has been offered and refused a fortune.

Probably his most remarkable invention is a non-refillable bottle, which has been tested thoroughly by manufacturers, and which is soon to be manufactured by a company organized for the purpose. After the first test was made the minister was offered $100,000 for his patent, but refused. The offer was increased, but he refused to dispose of the patent as a whole or even of a controlling interest. Ultimately he sold a tenth interest for $10,000, and is to receive a royalty on all the bottles manufactured.

Another of his inventions is a non-refillable bottle cork, which is closely allied to the non-refillable bottle, but can be made to fit any bottle that is manufactured. Still another is an automatic monkey wrench which does away with the screw and thread and adjusts itself automatically to any size. It is said the wrench can be manufactured and sold much cheaper than the ordinary article.

—Miss Rose, of Cowan, Fleming County, is the guest of Mrs. W. I. Jackson, of East Second street.

Third Street M. E. Church, M. A. Banker pastor. Services Sunday at 10:30. Subject, "The Key to Christian Character." Evening services at 7, subject, "The Ingratitude of Man." A song service will be given as a prelude to the evening sermon. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Public cordially invited.

Every visitor at the World's Fair next year may discover the North Pole. Work has begun on the concession, "From New York to the North Pole and Return." This will stand on the Skinker road, east of the French National pavilion. There will be a reproduction in full size of the steamship "St. Louis." Visitors may go all through the ship and see the machinery. From the decks one has a view of a stage and will appear to take the trip suggested by the name of the concession.

PROVE ALL THINGS.

Maysville People Look For Proper Proof.

To win a wager an English Marquis stood on London bridge and offered British sovereigns ($5) for five shillings ($1.25). He could not find a customer. It's not to be wondered at, the public look askance at any proposition where the proposer is apparently a financial loser, without direct or indirect gain. Fraudulent schemers have often been successful and in these days skeptics want better proof than the word of a stranger. No evidence can be stronger than the testimony of friends and neighbors, of people we know. Here is case of it:

Mrs. James Molen, of 219 Lee street, who says: "Our son was greatly troubled with his kidneys and although he used many remedies nothing brought lasting relief. We learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and his father went to J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store on West Second and Market streets and got a box for him. Its use proved its great value. We most heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from kidney ailments."

The Smith & Nixon Piano Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.—Gentlemen: I take pleasure in certifying to the superior tonal qualities, durability and general excellence of the Ebersole piano. As I write from a personal acquaintance with the instrument of nearly four years, my opinion is no hasty one, and, although entirely unsolicited, I deem it my duty to say a few words in praise of this excellent piano. It is an ideal one for the hard-working student, possessing a very important faculty—that of remaining in tune longer than any other instrument of which I have personal knowledge.

Very truly yours,

SLAIN IN MAN'S GARB.

Countess D'Ivry Meets Accidental Death in Paris—Concealed Sex to Escape Public Gaze.

Countess Diane Ogier d'Ivry, the beautiful young daughter of Count Ogier d'Ivry, died in a hospital in Paris recently as the result of being injured while out driving in the guise of a man. Her identity was concealed for a time by the fact that she wore a man's clothes.

A pony cart, driven apparently by a handsomely dressed young man, accompanied by a groom, collided with a heavy vehicle near the Avenue Bois du Boulogne.

The handsome driver was removed to a hospital and placed in the male ward. The doctors were preparing for an operation when they found the injured person to be a woman. She was removed to the female ward and was identified as the daughter of Count Ogier d'Ivry. A medical examination disclosed that her skull was fractured in three places and she died the next morning.

The countess was 20 years of age and her blonde hair was cut short. It is explained that she was in the habit of assuming male attire to avoid attracting the attention of men.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants. His health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE."

Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him "ORRINE." He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."

Mr. A. E. L., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 817 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Treatment on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request.

SMITH'S SUICIDE.

Gave as a Reason For Ending His Life the Unjust Criticism of a Baltimore Paper.

KENOVA, W. VA., January 14.—Prof. Lyman Elliott Smith, who registered at the Glenwood Inn here last night from Mayslick, Ky., but who is thought to have given a fictitious address, committed suicide at midnight by shooting himself through the head, the barrel of a revolver having been placed in an incision of flesh made with a penknife, evidently to keep his flesh from being powder burned.

The man is a mystery. He came from Baltimore, over the C. and O., and from a letter found in his pocket he had less than ten days ago returned from a trip abroad.

He has evidently at one time been a professor in some of the leading colleges of the country and had letters of recommendation from the University of Cincinnati and from Richard G. Moulton, of the Chicago University.

He had considerable money, and left a note written just a few minutes before his suicide, which gave as a reason for his rash act that he had devoted his entire life to the study of literature, and that a Baltimore newspaper (the Sun) had criticised some of his writings, which he thought cruel and unfair, and that he could not stand the censure.

Many believe the man must have been insane. He had been reading a copy of Homer's Odyssey just before ending his life.

CHICAGO, ILL., January 14.—Prof. R. G. Moulton, of the University of Chicago, says Prof. Lyman Elliott Smith was a student in the summer school in 1900, and that he had given him several letters of recommendation.

Mr. Smith's remains were brought here on the 3:25 train by his brother, Mr. Austin Smith, and taken to Mayslick for interment. These two brothers grew up in the home of Mr. Chas. Rees, near Mayslick, Austin assisting his brother in securing an education. Investigation at Kenova showed the deceased had bought a ticket to Maysville and forwarded his trunk, but he missed the train, and returned to the hotel where, during the night, he took his life.

Agnes Delia, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Morris, of Mayslick, died Friday morning at 1 o'clock. Funeral this morning at 10 o'clock from the home, Rev. Father De Bruyne officiating. Burial at Washington.

A telegram from Muncie, Ind., announces the death at her home in that city of Mrs. James Love. Over three score and ten, this devoted wife and mother lived to see her children distinguished in the art and musical world. She was a daughter of Capt. John Campbell of the war of 1812, and was a niece of Captains Horatio and Charles Church, well known Mississippi river Captains. She was also a relative of Chicago's first Mayor, Long John Wentworth.

Christian Church—Preaching to-morrow at 10 45 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the minister. Special sermon at night to young men. Other services at usual hours. The public invited.

The members of the Mite Society of the Third Street M. E. Church who belong to the "Blues" are cordially invited to the banquet to be given by the "Reds" at the church next Tuesday evening.

A colored man employed by Langfels, the plumber, while working in the cellar at Mr. W. N. Stockton's residence Thursday found a stick of dynamite. Just how it came there is a mystery. The negro had just dropped a heavy hammer, narrowly missing the dynamite.

A fine class for young men has been started in the Y. M. C. A. for the study of vocal music. Rev. Dr. Barbour has charge. It meets Tuesday evenings. Seventeen were present at the last meeting. There are some fine voices in Maysville, and after proper training some splendid concerts are anticipated.

Warren Easter and Vincent Howard, of Dover, charged with shooting and wounding Lee Vanhoose with intent to kill, were brought before Squire Dreel Thursday, for preliminary trial. They waived examination, and were held in sum of $100 each for their appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court. They gave the required bail.

Vanhoose is a shantyboatman and at the time of the shooting the men were under the impression that he was trying to kill his wife, having been attracted by her screams. The trouble occurred some time ago.

A SUCCESS.

Artistically and Financially, Was the Y. M. C. A. Benefit Concert Last Night.

Last evening's concert at the First Presbyterian Church was a success. Apart from the fact that the purpose of the concert would invite a large audience, the program offered was sufficiently attractive to insure a well-filled house. Maysville's choicest musical talent was to be in evidence, so at the hour appointed, standing room was in demand. The lower room of the church used on such occasions was artistically decorated in flowers and lights. It was a pretty setting in harmony with the occasion.

"Down by the Flowing River," sung by Messrs. Smoot, Muse, Moss and Dr. Barbour, was received with enthusiasm, as the opening number. This was followed by Herbert's "Badinage" played by Miss Frances Barbour with such daintiness and charm that she was applauded until she graciously responded with an encore. Other numbers by the quartette together and singly were sung and warmly applauded, but the honors of the evening were divided between Miss Wadsworth and Miss Elizabeth Barbour, together as singer and accompanist and with Miss Barbour alone in two piano solos.

Miss Wadsworth's voice is too well known and enjoyed by lovers of music to say more than she sang; sang "The Willow," by Goring Thomas, with a sympathy and fineness that carried the tone of a violin with it. The waltz from Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet" gave her an ampler field into which to pitch her voice into lights and shades. She was applauded again and again.

The "Butterfly Waltz," by Schnelle, was played before a Maysville audience for the first time by Miss Elizabeth Barbour. It is delicate and beautiful, and well suited to this pianist's fine touch. Her many friends already consider her an artist, with a brilliant future in a musical way.

A handsome sum was realized for the Y. M. C. A. piano fund.

Death of Mr. Breckinridge Carr. Mr. John C. Breckinridge Carr died last night at 10 o'clock at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Carr, in the Sixth ward, after a lingering illness. He was forty-two years old, and leaves several brothers and sisters. The funeral takes place Sunday at 2 p. m. at the family residence, Rev. Mr. Godbey officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Molloy. Burial in Maysville Cemetery.

This morning the advance sale of seats for the coming production of "Alphonse and Gaston," a musical comedy by Frank Tannehill, opened at Ray's. The farce was written solely for a night's laughing entertainment; it is said to be clean cut and wholesome, with funny complications, pretty dances and a chorus that is full of grace, all possessing well trained voices. The date is Tuesday, January 19th.
